

Bob and Linda Collenburg of the Sun City Road Runners Motorcycle Club at the Bluffton Christmas Parade

Photo by Stephen Berend

Crazy Parades Around the State

HOLIDAY

“A little nonsense now and then is cherished by the wisest men.” So said Willy Wonka in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, and because we agree, we dispatched three photographers to capture the nonsense at different Christmas parades in South Carolina. At Columbia’s Festivus parade, Bill Rogers found girls on skates and boys on skateboards - and people carrying signs pushing for a skate park. Jason Zwiker snapped The Edisto Island Marching Misfits Band and assorted dogs in costume. Stephen Berend caught candy-throwing reindeer and a sense of community in Bluffton, where old and new residents came together to watch. Whether you’re spectator or spectacle, Christmas parades are fun. Put on your antlers and go! 📸

Hi-jinx

Edisto Beach Christmas Parade Photos by Jason A. Zwiker

Columbia's "Festivus" Parade

Photos by Bill Rogers

Bluffton Christmas Parade

Photos by Stephen Berend